Board of Education to Honor WRALL Teams

HOUSTON COUNTY, GA – The Houston County Board of Education will honor Warner Robins American Little League (WRALL) championship teams tomorrow, Friday, Oct. 16, at the Houston County High - Warner Robins High football game at the McConnell-Talbert Stadium.

The Southeast Little League Champions will be recognized pre-game at approximately 7:10 p.m. Each team member and coach will be presented a framed photograph of the team holding its championship banner. Superintendent David Carpenter and Houston County High Principal Sherri Freeman will make the presentation on behalf of the school board and in partnership with Hobby Lobby of Warner Robins.

Our 2009 Little League World Series Champions will be honored at the beginning of half-time. Superintendent Carpenter and Principal Freeman will present each team member, coach and team manager a framed and matted custom-made poster. This gift is also provided in partnership with Hobby Lobby.

The McConnell-Talbert Stadium is located on Davis Drive in Warner Robins. For more information, contact Freeman at either sherri.freeman@hcbe.net or (478) 988-6340.
