HCHS Marching Band Named Grand Champion Times Two

HOUSTON COUNTY, GA – The Houston County High School Black and Silver Brigade Competitive Marching Band was named Grand Champion Class AAAAA in two competitions this month. The band won the premier awards at both the 2009 Golden Hawk Marching Band Invitational band competition held Oct. 17 and the Heart of Georgia Invitational competition held Oct. 24. The band brought home several other awards from both competitions. The Black and Silver Brigade Competitive Marching Band has 160 students.

Wally Shaw serves as band director, and Todd Wilson is the assistant director. The teachers are pictured with the senior class 2010 band members and awards at the Heart of Georgia Invitational. Houston County High is located at 920 Highway 96 in Warner Robins. Sherri Freeman serves as principal. For more information, contact Shaw at wally.shaw@hcbe.net.
