Perry High Honors CTAE Student of the Month

HOUSTON COUNTY, GA – Perry High School’s Career, Technical, and Agricultural Education Department recognized Abbie Cook as the November 2009 Student of the Month. Cook, a freshman, has quickly become active in the leadership opportunities offered by the Perry High Family, Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA) Chapter.

“Abbie put forth 100 percent effort into designing a brochure for the FCCLA Fall Leadership Competitions at the Georgia National Fair,” commented Kama Beaumarchais, family and consumer sciences teacher. “She has welcomed FCCLA into her life with open arms, and she brings a ton of creativity and new ideas to the table. This type of spirit is displayed only in natural born leaders. Abbie is a positive leader who sets a fine example for other students. Full of fresh ideas that she willingly offers to Perry High and FCCLA, her “I Can” attitude brings a great deal of potential to the CTAE department. An excellent worker, she shows dedication and determination in each project she conquers. All of these reasons contributed to why Abbie Cook was selected as Perry High’s CTAE November Student of the Month.”
