Perry High FCCLA Star Event Winners

HOUSTON COUNTY, GA – Perry High School Family Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA) members recently participated in the Region Star Event Competition. The students won five Gold awards, qualifying to advance to the State competition.

The FCCLA State competition will be held in Athens, Ga. The winners and their competitions are described below.

- Sydney Creamer and Karin Locke won this highest award for their Chapter Service Project, Casseroles for Cancer. They prepared and delivered 72 casseroles at Thanksgiving and Christmas to patients receiving chemotherapy and radiation treatments. They are pictured on page two.
- Culinary team members Cody Willard, Morgan Jackson and Keyomri Scott (pictured from left in the first photo, page one) won the award in the Culinary Arts competition. During the region two-hour competition, they prepared three cold dishes for judging.

- Molli and Marti Bell prepared a project for the Life Event Planning STAR Event. They planned every detail of their father's U.S. Air Force retirement ceremony and party. They are pictured below.
- Hillary Singletary recycled bread crumbs and made them into beads which she then used to create classy yet sassy bracelets, necklaces and key chains. She entered her recycled products into the Recycle and Redesign STAR Event where she won Gold. Hillary is pictured below.
- Perry High FCCLA'S eight member Parliamentary Procedure team conducted a formal business meeting following Roberts Rules of Order, and they also advance to the State competition. The members (pictured on page one in the second photo, from left) consist of: Keyonda Hayes, Erin Crovo, Brittany Tackett, Amanda Svoboda, Kelsey Culberson, Alicia Lopez and Paige Smith.

“Students competed in five different events this year, and it was their best year ever,” exclaimed Kama Beaumarchais, Perry High family and consumer sciences teacher and FCCLA advisor. “We are extremely proud of these students and of all the hard work and extra hours they have invested into their competitive events. We could not have asked for harder working students to represent us or Perry High. They all are outstanding and richly deserve to advance to the State competition. Job well done!”

Perry High School is located at 1307 North Avenue in Perry. Dr. Darryl Albritton serves as principal. Beaumarchais may be contacted at (478) 988-6298 or Kama.Beaumarchais@hcbe.net.
