Archie Appointed Principal of Lindsey Elementary

HOUSTON COUNTY, GA – Angelique Archie was named principal of Lindsey Elementary School for the 2010-2011 school year during the called board meeting held July 8, 2010. Archie replaces Anthony Lunceford who is now the Executive Director for Secondary Operations.

Currently Archie serves as the Assistant Principal for Instruction at Lindsey Elementary. An educator with Houston County for three years, she began her teaching career in 1996. She also served as a literacy coach in Bibb County.

“I am honored to have the opportunity to serve the Lindsey community as principal,” commented Archie. “It is my goal to support the students, faculty, and parents as we work collectively to achieve academic excellence. I will strive to create an environment that is safe and fosters learning for all children.”

A native of Mobile, Alabama, Archie has been a resident of Warner Robins since 2003. She earned her Bachelor of Science in Education from the University of Memphis. In addition, she obtained a Master’s and Education Specialist in Educational Leadership from Georgia College and State University. She is married to Frederick Archie, and they have two children, Supriya and Jaylen.

Lindsey Elementary is located at 81 Tabor Drive in Warner Robins. Principal Archie may be contacted at Angelique.Archie@hcbe.net or (478) 929-7818.
