Georgia Master Teachers Announced for Houston

Recognizing Educators Who Get Results

MasterTeachers

HOUSTON COUNTY, GA – Ten Houston County teachers were designated 2010 Georgia Master Teachers, recognizing them among the state's best teachers. To earn this designation, an educator must have at least three years of classroom experience and evidence that links instruction to appreciable gains in student achievement.

The program was established by legislation passed during the 2005 Georgia General Assembly. It is coordinated by the Georgia Professional Standards Commission (PSC).

Houston County's 2010 Master Teachers are:

- Cynthia D. Davis - Bonaire Middle School
- Brandy S. Farrell – Warner Robins Middle
- Jennifer Hall – Parkwood Elementary
- Georgia A. Hart – Warner Robins Middle
- Kimessia Hughes – Warner Robins Middle
- Carla J. Roberts – Bonaire Middle School
- Evelyn Shope – Lake Joy Elementary
- Robin Way – Bonaire Middle
- Lakeitha Weston – Warner Robins Middle and
- Stephanie S. Wilson – Bonaire Middle.

Houston County now has 23 Master Teachers. For more information on the Master Teacher Program, visit <http://www.gamasterteachers.org>.
