FMMS Teacher Named "A Woman of Vision and Action"

HOUSTON COUNTY, GA – The Delta Kappa Gamma Society International recently named Peggy McCall, a Feagin Mill Middle School honors science and language arts teacher, "A Woman of Vision and Action." McCall (pictured) was honored in July at the Delta Kappa Gamma international convention held in Spokane, Washington.

She is an active member of the Society at chapter, state and international levels and currently serves as the state editor of the Psi State News, a periodical serving more than 4,000 Georgia members. A member of the Gamma Omicron Chapter in Warner Robins, Ga. since 1989, McCall has served at all levels of the chapter: committee chair, recording secretary, first vice-president, second-vice president, and chapter president.

The Delta Kappa Gamma Society International is an honor society that promotes professional and personal growth of women educators and excellence in education with more than 100,000 members worldwide.

McCall may be contacted by e-mail at Peggy.McCall@hcbe.net. Feagin Mill Middle School is located at 1200 Feagin Mill Road in Warner Robins. Dr. Jesse Davis serves as principal. For more information contact McCall or visit the Web site www.deltakappagamma.org.
