HOUSTON COUNTY, GA – Northside High School won first place at the State One-Act competition for Quad-A schools with its performance of Runaways. The bid for State was held Nov. 13, 2010, at Veterans High School. Northside advanced to the state competition by winning first place at the Region AAAA One-Act competition.

At the region competition, Northside's Patrick Hamilton won Best Supporting Actor and Nicole Molina won Best Supporting Actress. In addition, Lindsay Mears and Candice McLellan were named to the All-Star Cast.

Northside will present their award-winning performance of Runaways for the public on Sunday, Dec. 12, 2010, at 3:00 p.m. at the Northside High Ray Horne Theater. Admission is either $5 or five canned goods. This is Northside's fifth annual food drive for the local food bank.

Written by Elizabeth Swados, Runaways is a collection of songs sung by troubled youth. While the subject is primarily runaway children from broken homes, Runaways also comments on the larger world in which the children live.

Brian Barnett serves as the drama director. Northside High is located at 926 Green Street in Warner Robins. Mark Scott serves as principal. For more information, e-mail Brian.Barnett@hcbe.net.
