WRHS Wins Literary Meet

HOUSTON COUNTY, GA – Warner Robins High School won the Region Literary Meet held March 10, 2011. The students will compete at State this Saturday, March 19. Northside High School is hosting the state competition, which begins at 9:00 a.m.

Warner Robins High earned a total of 43 points. The team is coached by Scott Daniel, Joy Dumas, Tamara Fisher, Barbara Hilliard and John McClellan. McClellan said, “We’re excited about eight of our students qualifying for State, and we’re glad that our three local high schools in this region took home over half the awards!”

Northside High won third place with a total of 27 points, and Houston County High placed fourth just one point behind with 26 points. The following lists individual awards for Warner Robins High’s students.

- Lauren Cusker - Girls Dramatic Interpretation – 1st place
- Ben Smith - Boys Dramatic Interpretation - 1st place
- Ian White – Boys Essay – 1st place
- Miriam Baker - Girls Essay – 1st place
- Brandon Ross, Alexander Geronzin, Justin Capers, Hunter Lacey – Quartet – 1st place
- James Walker - Boy’s Extemporaneous Speaking – 2nd place
- Hunter Lacey - Boy’s Solo – 3rd place
