FMMS Teacher Installed as DKG State President

HOUSTON COUNTY, GA –Feagin Mill Middle School teacher Peggy McCall was recently installed as President of the Georgia organization for the Delta Kappa Gamma Society International. McCall (pictured) teaches honors language arts and science. She was installed during a formal banquet held at the Lake Blackshear Resort.

Delta Kappa Gamma (DKG) is an honor society of key women educators with more than 100,000 members in 17 countries that strive for educational excellence. This is the 75th anniversary of Delta Kappa Gamma in Georgia.

McCall will serve as state president for two years, travelling Georgia to meet with 90 chapters and organizing committees of work at the state level. A member of DKG since 1989, she is an active member of at the chapter, state and international levels. She was initiated into the Beta Beta Chapter in Fla., transferred to the Alpha Chapter in London, and finally transferred to the Gamma Omicron Chapter in Warner Robins in 1995.

At the state level of DKG, McCall has served and chaired many committees to include Membership, State Program of Work, District Director and Psi State Editor. She is presently a committee member on the International Communications Committee, and she has attended Leadership I and II Seminars. McCall has also attended and conducted many workshops at state, regional and international conventions. In addition, she is a regular attendee of regional and international conventions and has received numerous grants from international, Psi State, and her chapter. In 2008, she was selected and participated in the Golden Gift Leadership/Management Seminar in Austin, Texas.

As an educator, McCall has worked in elementary and middle school teaching a variety of subjects. She holds Georgia Master Teacher certification and has been named Houston County Gifted Teacher of the Year as well as Georgia Gifted Teacher of the Year. She holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Elementary and Middle School Education and a master's degree in post secondary education. Feagin Mill Middle School is located at 1200 Feagin Mill Road in Warner Robins. Dr. Jesse Davis serves as principal. For more information, please contact McCall at Peggy.McCall@hcbe.net or visit the Web site www.dkg.org.
