

Scholars' Day will be held on February 24 and 25, 2012, and is by invitation only. This event is for students who have a 1200 SAT score (critical reading and math only) or a 27 composite ACT score. Students who are selected for this event will have the opportunity to interview with faculty and staff for all scholarships for which they are eligible.

The Southern LEAD Conference will be held on March 3, 2012, and is for students who have shown outstanding leadership in their high schools and involvement in their communities. Students must have an 1100 SAT (critical reading and math) or a 24 composite ACT and a 3.0 GPA in order to be considered for the Southern LEAD Scholarship.

Students who meet the requirements for Scholars' Day or Southern LEAD need to submit a scholarship application and complete their admissions application by February 1, 2012.

Sorry again for the misinformation! Please let me know if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Amanda Wheeler, Admissions Counselor
Georgia Southern University
(912) 478-5391
admissions@georgiasouthern.edu