Huntington Middle Student Art Published

HOUSTON COUNTY, GA – Two Huntington Middle School students submitted artwork which was chosen for publication in “Celebrating Art,” a student art book. Eighth-grader Courtney Collins submitted string work art and seventh-grader Jaylen Lowder submitted a portrait of Van Gogh. Their art teacher is Torris Woolfolk.

CelebratingArt.com established the contest to reward student artists and to showcase their art. Only the best entries are chosen for inclusion in the full-color, hardbound book.

According to the Celebrating Art Web site, “Entering our art contest and giving students the opportunity of being published...

✓ Encourages students' artistic talents

- ✓ Increases the learning experience
- ✓ Provides additional recognition
- ✓ Preserves art in a professionally bound book
- ✓ Gives artistic work a larger audience
- ✓ Provides a permanent record for schools of their students' achievements
- ✓ Helps promote your art program
- ✓ Builds self-esteem.”
