Program of Study

The Houston County Board of Education offers two programs of study for high school students, including the College Preparatory program of study and the Career/Technical Preparatory program of study. Completing the prescribed courses for either of these programs of study leads to the required Seal of Endorsement from the State Board of Education.

Based on your child's academic performance, the _____ Program of Study has been recommended for your child. If you agree with this selection, please check that program of study below. If you do not agree, check the preferred program of study.
