Three Houston County High Students Win Awards at Region One-Act

HOUSTON COUNTY, GA –Houston County High School competed at region one-act, performing “Once Upon A Mattress.” Three cast members brought home individual awards. Heather Center and Allison Johnson were selected as members of the All-Star Cast, and Best Supporting Actor went to Logan Lorenz.

Drama teacher and one-act director Bronwyn Jardin commented, “The cast and crew all gave an outstanding performance! Although not 1st or runner-up, HOCO received a ‘shout-out’ from the judges for making it into the top four

The production involves a 28-member class and crew and is a delightful musical adapted from the tale of “The Princess and the Pea.” With music and lyrics by Mary Rodgers and Marshall Barer, and book by Jay Thompson, Dean Fuller, and Marshall Barer, the plot revolves around an unfortunate prince whose possessive mother refuses to let him marry, unless a “real princess” can be found through her impossible tests. The ideal princess turns out to be quite a surprise for all concerned.

Houston County High is located at 920 Highway 96 in Warner Robins. Sherri Freeman serves as principal. Jardin may be contacted at either Bronwyn.Jardin@hcbe.net or (478) 988-6340, extension 32366.
