

MILITARY RECRUITMENT PROVISION - §9528 of the NCLB Act of 2001

The No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 (NCLB) requires the Houston County School System to disclose the name, address, and telephone numbers of high school students upon request by military recruiters and institutions of higher learning. However, parents or individual students 18 years or older may request that the information not be released.

Under the current federal law, you do not have to allow your child's information to be shared if you request non-disclosure. Forms are available in the counselor's office should you choose to opt out. The form must be completed by the parents (or the student if 18 years or older) and returned to the school.
